

Element 3: Feedback, Data Systems and Monitoring

The facility puts in place systems to monitor care and services, drawing data from multiple sources. This element includes using Performance Indicators to monitor a wide range of care processes and outcomes, and reviewing findings. It also includes tracking, investigating, and monitoring Adverse Events that must be investigated every time they occur, and action plans implemented to prevent recurrences.